

Ignore unlawful publication about Francisca Serwaa Boateng on the General
Legal Council's website

1. My attention has been drawn to a publication on the General Legal Council's website. The document, alleged to be proceedings from the disciplinary committee of the General Legal Council, has no date, no case number, no title, no names of parties, no names of lawyers for the parties, and no sanctions at all.

2. The document is signed by "Anin Yeboah, JSC, Irene Larbi, JA and Sam Okudzeto, Esq". But Chief Justice Anin Yeboah is not the chairman or a member of the disciplinary committee of the General Legal Council.

3. There is also an unlawfully concocted document on the General Legal Council's website announcing my supposed suspension from legal practice. I have never received any such bogus document from the GLC. No wonder it does not state the names of the persons who purported to have contrived such an outrageous and unlawful decision. Consequently, that document has been uploaded and pulled down from the GLC's website several times.

3. I, therefore, urge everyone to disregard the unlawful and obnoxious documents in circulation. I am taking all necessary legal action against the perpetrators of that illegality.

Thank you.
